

WORTH A SHOT

The vaccination of girls in the developed world against the human papillomavirus over the past decade will help to avert over 300,000 cancer cases.

Whoever you are, you can make a personal commitment to prioritise vaccination, early detection and prevention.

Learn more at worldcancerday.org/keyissues

#IAmAndIWill
#WorldCancerDay

Join us on 4 February