I AM A CORPORATE TOOLKIT AND I WILL INSPIRE BUSINESSES AND WORKPLACES TO MAKE AN IMPACT

worldcancerday.org
Cancer is the second leading cause of death worldwide. Together, we will change that.

This World Cancer Day, we’re asking for your personal commitment to take positive action against cancer.

We believe that we can achieve the global target of a 25% reduction in premature deaths from cancer and non-communicable diseases if we act today.

Join us on 4 February to speak out and stand up for a world less burdened by cancer.

Our time to act is now.

World Cancer Day

Each year on 4 February, World Cancer Day empowers businesses, communities and individuals across the world to show support, raise our collective voice, take personal action and press our governments to do more.

Who’s behind World Cancer Day?

World Cancer Day is an initiative of the Union for International Cancer Control, the largest and oldest international cancer organisation committed to taking the lead in uniting the cancer community to reduce the global cancer burden, promote greater equity, and integrate cancer control into the world health and development agenda.

Campaign theme 2019 - 2021: I am and I will

You are the hero of this story.

Whoever you are, you have the power to reduce the impact of cancer for yourself, the people you love and for the world.

Only when we have commitment, can we take action and accelerate progress.

It’s time to make a personal commitment.

Why cancer in the workplace?

Cancer is a critical health and human issue.

Today, 9.6 million people each year will die from cancer. Making it the second-most deadly disease.

Yet, at least one third of cancers can be prevented.

Businesses and workplaces have a fundamental role to play in achieving a world less burdened by cancer. Businesses can contribute to healthier workplaces, be a powerful voice in the community and act as a vital support for employees impacted by cancer.

World Cancer Day

Each year on 4 February, World Cancer Day empowers businesses, communities and individuals across the world to show support, raise our collective voice, take personal action and press our governments to do more.
Key issues

Explore some of the most urgent issues in cancer. Find out how cancer affects us all and the power we have to reduce the rising incidence of cancer.

Awareness, understanding, myths and misinformation

Increased awareness and accurate information and knowledge can empower all of us to recognise early warning signs, make informed choices about our health and counter our own fears and misconceptions about cancer.

Prevention and risk reduction

At least one third of cancers are preventable giving us every reason to champion healthy choices and prevention strategies for all, so that we have the best chance to prevent and reduce our cancer risks.

Equity in access to cancer services

Life-saving cancer diagnosis and treatment should be equal for all – no matter who you are, your level of education, level of income or where you live in the world. By closing the equity gap, we can save millions of lives.

Government action and accountability

Proactive and effective actions on national health planning are possible and feasible in every country, and when governments step up efforts to reduce and prevent cancer, they place their nations in a stronger position to advance socially and economically.
Financial and economic burden
There is a compelling financial argument for committing resources to cancer control. Financial investment can be cost-effective and can potentially save the global economy billions of dollars in cancer treatment costs and offer positive gains in increased survival, productivity and improved quality of life.

Reducing the skills gap
Skilled and knowledgeable healthcare workers are one of the most powerful ways we can deliver quality cancer care. Addressing the current skills gap and shortage of healthcare professionals is the clearest way to achieve progress in reducing the number of premature deaths from cancer.

Beyond physical: mental and emotional Impact
Quality cancer care includes dignity, respect, support and love and considers not just the physical impact of cancer but respects the emotional, sexual and social wellbeing of each individual and their carer.

Working together as one
Strategic collaborations that involve civil society, companies, cities, international organisations and agencies, research and academic institutions are the strongest ways to help expand awareness and support, convert political will into action and deliver comprehensive and cohesive solutions. Joining efforts leads to powerful action at every level.

Shangri-La’s staff get moving
Staff at the Shangri-La Hotel Suzhou in China were encouraged to mark World Cancer Day through a number of healthy-lifestyle initiatives. Activities included a swimming relay, a healthy lunch and activities and incentives to help quit smoking.

Leaders use their voice
Global biopharmaceutical company, Bristol-Myers Squibb invited their own leaders and experts to use their voices on World Cancer Day. Messages of support, commitment to advancing research, making a difference in patient lives, and of hope radiated from around the world and were amplified on social media.

Fundraising for a cause
With World Cancer Day coinciding with the NFL Super Bowl, Merck took the opportunity to team up with Hall of Fame quarterback and cancer survivor, Jim Kelly to launch the Your Cancer Game Plan Challenge, which connects patients with help, support and coping strategies. For each share of the yourcancergameplan.com portal on social media, Merck also donated $5 to various cancer patient organisations.

Learning on the job
Companies around the world including AT&T, Metro Madrid, Vodafone Qatar, and Qatar Airways used World Cancer Day as an opportunity to engage their own employees and teams by partnering with local cancer organisations to deliver web chats, workshops and awareness talks.

Lighting up for World Cancer Day
World Cancer Day saw hotels illuminating their iconic buildings by lighting up in orange and blue in support of the day, including the Fullerton Hotel in Singapore, the Sheraton and Torch hotels in Qatar, Le Royal Hotels & Resorts in Jordan, and the Yas Viceroy in the United Arab Emirates.

UberHealth delivers
To mark World Cancer Day, peer-to-peer ridesharing company Uber in Kerala, India provided riders with a special discount off a cancer screening package delivered by leading healthcare centre, Aster Medcity.
